

2nd CHANCE AUCTION!

Were you unable to attend the auction this year? Or maybe you were so overwhelmed by the many great offerings that you didn't get a chance to bid on all the things you were interested in.

Well – good news. There are a limited number of seats still available for a few events that are now being offered.

To get in on this opportunity...

1. See the list on the following pages.
2. Select your event(s) and the number of seats you're interested in.
3. Email Katie Traxel (ktraxel@wi.rr.com) with your selection and your phone number.
4. Upon confirmation from Katie that the seat(s) are yours, pay for the event by:
  - a. bringing the money to church and placing it in a donation envelope. Make sure you indicate which auction event you're paying for, or....
  - b. mail a check to church (5810 8th Ave., Kenosha, 53140), attn: Katie Traxel. Indicate which event(s) you're paying for on your check.
5. Receive confirmation from Katie that you're in and then attend. If demand exceeds availability, first come-first served rules.

So don't miss out! Review the list and get your selection(s) in soon.

Event Date	Event	Number of Seats	Description	Price Per Seat	Host
Saturday, Feb. 22nd, 5pm	UW-P Foreign Film &amp; Dinner	2	Dinner and a movie with an Asian accent! The top six bidders will travel to Parkside (on your own or as a group) to see the Japanese film, "Her Love Boils Bathwater" followed by a meal at Soon's Sushi Cafe. Made by Japanese film maker Ryoto Nakano, (2016, with subtitles), this is the story about the power of love in adversity. (Kleenex recommended!) Teens and adults.	$30	Ginger Helgeson
Friday, Apr. 17th, 7pm	Make a Wind Chime	1	Make a "funky tumbled glass" wind chime while enjoying dessert! Materials (and dessert) supplied by the instructor. For teens to adults.	$20	gayle Clark-Taylor
Saturday, May 3rd, noon	Monarch Butterfly School	2	Learn all about Monarchs and how you can help these beauties by caring, feeding and ushering them from egg to caterpillar, to chrysalis to butterfly. One lucky attendee will go home with a Monarch Habitat for raising multiple butterflies. Munch on brats, meat or veggie burgers and salad afterward.	$20	Diane Giles and Nan Upright-Sexton
Saturday, May 9th, 10am	Safari to Ginger Blossom	1	Join Diane for a shopping and browsing safari to Ginger Blossom, in Richmond, Ill., a sprawling former dairy farm filled with treasures from around the world. Find hand-woven carpets, clothing, musical instruments (gongs, drums and the occasional didjeridu) and furniture from the far east, middle east and Central America! Dutch treat for lunch at the nearby Sand Bar and Island Grill. Transportation provided.	$15	Diane Giles

Saturday, June 13th, 9am to 6pm	Day Trip to Old World Wisconsin	3	Visit Old World Wisconsin in Eagle, Wis. It's a gem of an outdoor museum where you will travel in time from the 1840s to the 1910s, experiencing daily life as you help with chores and cooking, try your hand at crafts and trades. Enjoy the pleasant one hour 10 minute ride from Kenosha, transportation provided. Judy will pay your admission. Free trams at the museum transport you between sites. Bring a bag lunch or enjoy one of the museum's restaurants. In case of inclement weather, the trip will be rescheduled.	$25	Judy Thornber
Saturday, June 20th, 5pm	Bohemian Rhapsody Dinner	1	Hosted by Marge Krupp and inspired by her recent trip to her ancestral home of Czechoslovakia. Marge brings home the meal ideas, Katie concocts them for the plate and Robin will pour the liquids into the glass. It's a unique event with a delicious cuisine. There will be kolaches! Note: there is a resident cat.	$70	Katie Traxel, Robin Lester, Marge Krupp
Saturday, July 18th, 1pm	Splash Party for Adults and Kids	7 adults plus their kids	Everybody in the pool! Come cool down on a (hopefully) hot afternoon, not far from Kenosha in Franklin, WI. Food and refreshments provided. Pay for adults, kids are free!	$20 per adult	Mary Jonker
Sunday, Aug. 16th, 1pm	Bocce Tournament	1	Enjoy a fun afternoon playing bocce ball (also known as Italian lawn bowling) for beginners and competitors alike! Snacks and refreshments will be served.	$15	Carolyn Feldt
Saturday, Sept. 19th	An Evening at Hogwarts	12	Wizards and Witches and Muggle Borns! Join us for an evening of magic, food and fun. The evening will open with the Sorting Ceremony and opening feast. Earn House Points in Divination, Potions, D.A.D.A. (Defense Against the Dark Arts) and wandmaking classes. Quidditch Pong, dueling, Uno, Clue and H.P. Trivia will test your magical skills and earn you more House points. Which House will win the Hogwarts Cup?	$25	Joy Latuvnik & Marianne Morin